

National Junior Angus Association

Extemporaneous Speaking

This contest is best for individuals who thrive in on the fly situations. Juniors can come anytime during the specified contest time to check-in. Once checked-in, juniors will draw a topic and then have an allotted time to prepare. Juniors will have 20 minutes to prepare their speech, seniors and intermediates will have 30 minutes. Speeches need to be between 2-6 minutes long. Topics can range from American Angus Association programs to current ag events.

DETAILS

The winner of the senior division will receive a belt buckle from the American Angus Auxiliary in the name of Richard L. Spader. The winners of the intermediate divisions will also receive an award from the American Angus Auxiliary in the name of Pat Grote.
